PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Dry-docking of the A.P.T. James in Compliance with Shipbuilder's Warranty

The Management of the Trinidad and Tobago Inter-island Transportation Company Limited (TTIT) wishes to advise the travelling public that the A.P.T. James will be taken out of service on Wednesday 27th October, 2021 to undergo its scheduled dry-docking works in compliance with the shipbuilder's warranty.

These works will consist of internal and out of water works which will be carried out at Berth #3 at the Port of Spain harbour and at Caribbean Dockyard (CARIDOC), following which the vessel is expected to resume service by Wednesday 1st December, 2021.

Whilst the A.P.T. James is out of service, there will not be any disruption in the inter-island operations as the T&T Spirit, Buccoo Reef, and Galleons Passage will continue to service the Inter-island sea-bridge as follows:
